

Center for Education & Organizational Development (CEOD) Resources

The CEOD often purchases resources that we believe will be useful to individual departments, managers, or teams. These tools are available, free of cost, to assist in your own team development, departmental training and/or individual professional development. In addition to a full library of books on topics related to our hospital's mission including leadership, teaming, planning, etc., a sampling of other resources include:

KINDLE

The Kindle is an electronic, wireless book reading device which allows the user to literally carry around a library full of information in one small device. Currently we have titles that are related to hospital management loaded onto the Kindle. A wide range of other titles are available. It takes only 60 seconds to download the title. You can check the Kindle out for 2 weeks at a time to read these books electronically. A simple how to guide <http://www.wvu.edu/education/LinkClick.aspx?fileticket=t7TTx4pNPb4%3d&tabid=136> is available for first time users. Contact us for more information, to suggest a title, or to borrow the Kindle. Here is a list of the books currently available:
